Dear ***:

This letter is in response to your request dated January 6, 2011, as supplemented by correspondence dated April 14, 2011, and April 19, 2011, submitted on your behalf by your authorized representative, in which you requested a waiver of the 60-day rollover requirement contained in section 408(d)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (the Code).

The following facts and representations have been submitted under penalty of perjury in support of the ruling requested:

Taxpayer A, age , represents that she received a distribution of Amount A from her Individual Retirement Account (IRA), IRA X, at Financial Institution B. She asserts that her failure to accomplish a rollover of Amount A within the 60-day period prescribed by section 408(d)(3) was due to errors made by Financial Advisor D of Financial Institution C. Taxpayer A represents that Amount A has not been used for any other purpose.

Taxpayer A represents she was looking for a more conservative option for her IRA funds. On Date 1, she met with Financial Advisor D to discuss opening an IRA at Financial Institution C. On Date 2, Taxpayer A completed a distribution request form for Financial Institution B, requesting the distribution of Amount A from IRA X. However, contrary to Taxpayer A's instructions, Financial Advisor D of Financial Institution C deposited Amount A into Account Y, a non-IRA account. Taxpayer A reported the distribution of Amount A as a rollover on her tax return for Year Z. It was not until Date 3 in the following year, when Taxpayer A attempted to roll over additional funds into Account Y, that she discovered that Financial Advisor D had not established Account Y as an IRA.

Documentation provided shows that Financial Advisor D incorrectly deposited Amount A into Account Y, a non-IRA account. Specifically, Financial Advisor D has provided a signed statement admitting that she failed to open an IRA on behalf of Taxpayer A as had been requested by Taxpayer A.

Based on the foregoing facts and representations, you request a ruling that the Internal Revenue Service (the Service) waive the 60-day rollover requirement with respect to the distribution of Amount A from IRA X at Financial Institution B.

Section 408(d)(1) of the Code provides that, except as otherwise provided in section 408(d), any amount paid or distributed out of an IRA shall be included in gross income by the payee or distributee, as the case may be, in the manner provided under section 72 of the Code.

Section 408(d)(3) of the Code defines and provides the rules applicable to IRA rollovers.

Section 408(d)(3)(A) of the Code provides that section 408(d)(1) of the Code does not apply to any amount paid or distributed out of an IRA to the individual for whose benefit the IRA is maintained if --

- (i) the entire amount received (including money and any other property) is paid into an IRA for the benefit of such individual not later than the 60th day after the day on which the individual receives the payment or distribution; or

(ii) the entire amount received (including money and any other property) is paid into an eligible retirement plan (other than an IRA) for the benefit of such individual not later than the 60th day after the date on which the payment or distribution is received, except that the maximum amount which may be paid into such plan may not exceed the portion of the amount received which is includible in gross income (determined without regard to section 408(d)(3)).

Section 408(d)(3)(B) of the Code provides that section 408(d)(3) does not apply to any amount described in section 408(d)(3)(A)(i) received by an individual from an IRA if at any time during the 1-year period ending on the day of such receipt such individual received any other amount described in section 408(d)(3)(A)(i) from an IRA which was not includible in gross income because of the application of section 408(d)(3).

Section 408(d)(3)(D) of the Code provides a similar 60-day rollover period for partial rollovers.

Section 408(d)(3)(I) of the Code provides that the Secretary may waive the 60-day requirement under sections 408(d)(3)(A) and 408(d)(3)(D) of the Code where the failure to waive such requirement would be against equity or good conscience, including casualty, disaster, or other events beyond the reasonable control of the individual subject to such requirement. Only distributions that occurred after December 31, 2001, are eligible for the waiver under section 408(d)(3)(I) of the Code.

Revenue Procedure 2003-16, 2003-4 I.R.B. 359 (January 27, 2003) provides that in determining whether to grant a waiver of the 60-day rollover requirement pursuant to section 408(d)(3)(I) of the Code, the Service will consider all relevant facts and circumstances, including: (1) errors committed by a financial institution; (2) inability to complete a rollover due to death, disability, hospitalization, incarceration, restrictions imposed by a foreign country or postal error, (3) the use of the amount distributed (for example, in the case of payment by check, whether the check was cashed); and (4) the time elapsed since the distribution occurred.

The information presented and documentation submitted by Taxpayer A are consistent with her assertion that her failure to accomplish a timely rollover was caused by errors made by Financial Advisor D of Financial Institution C, which resulted in Amount A being deposited into Account Y, a non-IRA account.

Therefore, pursuant to section 408(d)(3)(I) of the Code, the Service hereby waives the 60-day rollover requirement with respect to the distribution of Amount A from IRA X. Taxpayer A is granted a period of 60 days from the issuance of this ruling letter to contribute Amount A into a rollover IRA. Provided all other requirements of section 408(d)(3) of the Code, except the 60-day requirement, are met with respect to such contribution, Amount A will be considered a rollover contribution within the meaning of section 408(d)(3) of the Code.

This letter expresses no opinion as to whether the IRA described herein satisfied the requirements of section 408 of the Code.
